

Cheap trick

This Jackie O-style jacket flares at the waist, making it kind on any festive-season expansion. And brocade is elegant at any age. £40 from Florence + Fred at Tesco (0800 505555)

Win this

Goldsmiths, the two-century old jewellers, has just relaunched its website.

To celebrate, it's offering one 'Stella' reader this 18ct-gold multi-strand Sigilli necklace (worth £530) from the Italian jeweller Chimento. To enter, log on to stella.telegraph.co.uk

*M*ary Moore (daughter of the sculptor Henry) has been collecting vintage clothing for four decades. Her eponymous shop in Clarendon Cross, London W11 – where designers can often be found seeking inspiration – is constantly updated, with Mary herself on hand to offer guidance and styling tips. This 1950s silk dress is a great piece of gothic chic for Christmas. £600 (020 7229 5678)

Paul Smith HAS REVISITED HIS NATIVE NOTTINGHAM TO DESIGN SEATING FOR THE ART-HOUSE BROADWAY CINEMA. THE NEW AUDITORIUM FEATURES 35 'LOVE SEATS', UPHOLSTERED IN STRIPED PAUL SMITH FABRIC, AND WILL SHOW INDEPENDENT FILMS OF THE TYPE THE DESIGNER HIMSELF REMEMBERS WATCHING THERE. (0115 952 6611)

The Sun Jar is a brilliant concept from the designer Tobias Wong. It's quirky and stylish – and even good for the world. The jar contains solar panels that absorb sunlight during the day and emit a warm glow after dark. So now even winter evenings can be brightened with a little sunshine. £20 from iwantoneofthose.com

