

Little black book

Secret addresses from stylish people

MARY MOORE, 60, has collected vintage clothes for more than 40 years and owns a boutique in London. She is the daughter of the sculptor Henry Moore

marymoorevintage.com

BlueFish Café Dorset

THE PORTUGUESE CHEF-PATRON OF THIS SIMPLE YET CHIC RESTAURANT ON PORTLAND OFFERS A FRESH, SEASONAL MENU WITH LOTS OF ORIGINAL COMBINATIONS. (01305 822991)

Karma London W14

For the best Indian food outside India, Karma in West Kensington is my favourite local haunt. There is far more choice than usual and all the ingredients are fresh and delicious. (020 7602 9333)

Riflemaker London W1

An eccentric and innovative gallery in an old rifle-maker's workshop in Soho. It's currently showing work by artists of the original 1960s beatnik hangout, the gallery Indica. (020 7439 0000)

First Tailored Alterations London SW1

Run by Tosca, the best tailor in London, and Manolita, a fitter with couture experience. They have done all my alterations for the past 20 years. (020 7730 1400)

What Comes Around Goes Around New York

A vintage shop that sells items from the Victorian age to the 1980s. There is also a showroom you can visit by appointment where you can happily spend a whole day. They can track down the really special pieces for you. (nyvintage.com)

Classics from Givenchy, Dior and YSL are the speciality of this glamorous vintage shop in Beverly Hills. It is great for eveningwear. (thepaperbagprincess.com)

Spectacular underwear, swimwear and beach-oriented fashion, all minimal yet utterly feminine. I love the green organza underwear. (kristinati.it)

Photo by Jaime Gili